

Civil Engineer – Water & Wastewater

Kenvirons is a civil and environmental engineering firm headquartered in Frankfort, KY. Established in 1975, Kenvirons is a team of technically oriented professionals dedicated to providing sound consulting services and client satisfaction. As part of our team, the successful applicant will work with staff members on projects related to drinking water distribution systems, sanitary sewer collection systems, land developments, and other water resources projects.

Responsibilities:

- Design calculations and modeling for water and wastewater projects
- Prepare applications for regulatory review and approval
- Prepare and/or coordinate environmental assessment
- Preparation of plan and specifications for construction bid
- Construction Quality Assurance (CQA) monitoring
- Collaborate and coordinate with staff and management

Qualifications:

- 0 to 2 years of engineering experience
- Bachelors of Science in Engineering
- AutoCAD/Civil 3D
- Proficient in Microsoft Office
- Good communication, writing, and organizational skills
- Work location to be split approximately 60% in office and 40% in field
- Extended travel possible
- Valid Driver's license
- Ability to lift 50 pounds

Kenvirons' offers a competitive compensation package that includes health, dental, vision, life and disability insurance, matching 401(k) plan, paid leave and holidays, and a great environment for professionals to thrive.

Qualified applicants can email their resume to mmcmillen@kenvirons.com, or mail their resume to the following address;

HR Coordinator
Kenvirons
770 Wilkinson Boulevard
Frankfort, KY 40601